

The Idaho Foodbank

Storing and Handling Allergenic Foods

Job Aid

Cory Archer

John Robertson

Jessica Warmath

Jason Harczak

OPWL 537 Instructional Design

Boise State University

Spring, 2022

Storage Paper Checklist

Basic Information

Are you receiving or moving product?

- Yes
- No

If yes, you need to be aware of allergenic products.

Allergenic Products

Are you handling one of the following?

Milk

Eggs

Soy

Wheat

Peanuts

Tree Nuts

Fish

Shellfish

Labeling Products

If pallet contains...	Then...
100% high risk allergen products e.g., milk, eggs, wheat, fish, shellfish, soy, tree nuts, and peanuts.	Identify pallet with a bin tag.
Does not contain 100% high risk allergen products.	Store in accordance with warehouse guidelines.

Preventing Cross-Contact

Cold Storage

Dry Storage

Allergen Guidelines – Milk and Eggs
Vertical Storage Requirements

NO	NO	YES	YES	YES

Allergen Guidelines – Soy, Wheat, Nuts, Tree Nuts
Vertical Storage Requirements
	NO	NO	YES	YES